

Kinder Kindness

Students love to be the leaders. Empower your students to make their school a better place by connecting them with kindergartners to provide cross-grade mentoring for kids who need it. Watch as your students learn valuable academic and social-emotional learning skills by teaching them to others.

The project concludes when students present to kindergartners and their teachers both quantitative and qualitative analyses of the progress their little learners have made.

For more project ideas, go to
BlueAppleTeacher.org

