

Rise Up, Recyclers!

As society consumes more and more resources, it becomes increasingly important to reduce, reuse, and recycle. In this project, students investigate the scientific concepts of reversibility and irreversibility, and apply their learning to study different ways in which materials are recycled.

At the conclusion of the project, students launch a community recycling drive to help demonstrate the powerful environmental benefits of recycling!

For more project ideas, go to
BlueAppleTeacher.org

