

Exit Slips

Have students write the answer to a question that helps to summarize new learning. This can happen on the way out of class or on the way into class. This formative assessment gives insight into student thinking and helps students take ownership of their learning.

For more strategies, go to
BlueAppleTeacher.org

